

1st Hellenic One Health Forum Agenda

War Museum | Athens, Greece | Saturday 15/12/2018

Organized by Hellenic Veterinary Association / One Health Committee

With the organizational support of the Royal Institute of International Affairs, Chatham House and One Health Platform

09:00 - 10.10 One Health in Greece Chair: Professor Theo Kanellos - President of One Health Greece “Unique challenges and opportunities for the One Health approach in Greece”	Key Note Speakers: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Dr Athina Trachili - President of Hellenic Veterinary Association “The significance of embracing One Health for the Greek Veterinarians” Dr Olympia Teligiroidou - Deputy Minister of Rural Development and Food Representatives of political parties & health associations “Greece - A unique country crossroads of three continents and superb Center for One Health Innovation” Dr Dimitris Thanos - Professor, Academician, President of the Scientific Board and Vice-President of the Board of Trustees of BRFAA “One Health education - How do we prepare the new generation of One Health practitioners?” Dr Johnson Chiang - President World Vet Association (WVA) “One Health Leadership” 	12:00 - 13:10 Panel discussion on developing a business case for One Health in Greece Chair: Professor Panayiotis Tsanakas - Professor of National Technical University of Athens “Status and Importance of One Health to health practitioners”	Key Note Speakers: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Dr Theofilos Rosenberg - President of Hellenic Center for Disease Control and Prevention, Associate Professor of Surgery “Hellenic CDC’s vision and strategic priorities” TBC - Representative of General Secretary of Research and Technology “One Health Research and Innovation Opportunities in Greece” Mr Richard Mark Brown - Head of Engineering, Athens Technology Centre “How can we make evidence-based decisions in One Health? What information / data needs to be collected, and what is the potential for this data to be used in a One Health way?” Professor Nikolaos Papaioannou - President of the Veterinary Faculty of Aristotle University “The importance of Neurodegenerative diseases in One Health” Dr Michalis Katsiboulas - Research Staff (Assistant Professor Level) Center of Clinical, Experimental Surgery and Translational Research “Translational Surgical Research in Greece”
Q & A	Q & A	Q & A	Q & A
10.10 - 10.30 State of the Art Lecture Professor Albertus Osterhaus - Director of the National Influenza Center (NIC) and WHO Collaborating Centre for Arboviruses and Haemorrhagic Fever Reference and Research “How the concept of One Health developed and how it is changing the Approach to Public Health, Surveillance, Health Education”
Q & A
10.30 - 11.40 Panel discussion on public health, infectious diseases and operational challenges Chair: Dr Maria Linou - DVM, Ph.D Hellenic Pasteur Institute focal point(alt)WHO for AMR “Status and importance of One Health Research to Greece”	Key Note Speakers: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Professor Andy Peters - Professor of Tropical Medicine, University of Edinburgh “Experience from Control and Prevention interventions that enhance One Health in developing and developed countries. What is missing?” Professor Laurence Rahme - Professor of Surgery, Microbiology and Immunobiology at Harvard Medical School “Translating One Health R&D to Valuable Products for Human and Animals” Professor Charalampos Billinis - Vice Rector of Thessaly University “One Health & Infectious Diseases” Professor Alkiviades Vatopoulos - Dean of the National School of Public Health “What is the importance of One Health in Greece - case study of AMR” Dr Danai Pervanidou - MD, MPH, Office for Vector-borne Diseases, Hellenic Center for Disease Control & Prevention “What is the importance of One Health in Greece - case study of West Nile Virus” 	13.10 - 14.20 Panel discussion on the science-policy interface Chair: Dr Faye Ioannou - DVM, MRCVS “What do we need to transform One Health Science into Action”	Key Note Speakers: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Dr Ioannis Baskozos - General Secretary of Public Health “The importance of the One Health Implementation in Greece” Dr Rafael Laguens - President of Federation of Veterinarians of Europe (FVE) “Policy/Science interface in One Health: Challenges and Opportunities” Dr Victor del Rio Vilas - Chatham House Fellow “Value contribution of One Health” Dr Erricos Tsiplanitis - President of the board of Orthopedics and Neurosurgery Study Group of the Hellenic Companion Animal Veterinary Association “One Medicine: the clinical perspective” Dr Nikolaos Tzimotoudis - Veterinary Chief, MPVM, Lieutenant Colonel, Center for Biological Researches of the Army “Spread of bacteria resistant to Antimicrobial Agent through food. The Risk Assessment Tools in Public Health”
Q & A	Q & A	Q & A	Q & A
11.40 - 12.00 Coffee break
14.20 - 14.30 Closing remarks Dr Eleni Pavlidou - DVM, MBA
14.30 - 15.30 Networking Lunch

Organizational Committee

Dr Athina Trachili, President of Hellenic Veterinary Association
 President: Professor Theo Kanellos, President of One Health Greece
 Members: Dr Ioannis Malemis, President of National Agency for Medicines
 Dr Eleni Pavlidou, DVM, MBA
 Dr Erricos Tsiplanitis, President of the board of Orthopedic and Neurosurgery study Group of the Hellenic Companion Animal Veterinary Association

Silver sponsors

Διανομέας Κτηνιατρικών Προϊόντων

Platinum sponsor

Bronze sponsors

Technology Coordinator: Aris Papandreou, MPhil, MBA- Head of Professional Services, Athens Technology Center